

Language Requirements

Exigences linguistiques

Most of the universities require that applicants whose first language is one other than English, or who were educated in a country where English is not normally the language of instruction, write or take one of the language tests listed below. Each institution has its own requirements, which are subject to change. Most universities apply more stringent requirements for certain programs. It is in the applicant's best interests to contact the universities directly for more information.

La plupart des universités exigent que les candidats dont la langue maternelle est autre que l'anglais ou le français, ou des candidats qui ont étudié dans un pays où la langue d'instruction n'est pas l'anglais ou le français, doivent normalement écrire ou subir un des tests de compétence linguistique énumérés ci-dessous. Chaque université établit ses propres exigences, qui peuvent être modifiées, et qui peuvent être plus rigoureuses selon le programme. Les candidats sont avisés de communiquer directement avec les universités pour plus de détails.

Legend

PBT: Paper-Based Test
CBT: Computer-Based Test
iBT: Internet-Based Test

Note: After September 30, 2006, the computer-based version of the TOEFL test (TOEFL CBT) will no longer be offered. The TOEFL is gradually introducing the Internet-based version of the TOEFL test – TOEFL iBT. In areas where the TOEFL iBT is not yet available, the paper-based version of the TOEFL test will continue to be offered.

TOEFL CBT scores are valid for two years from the administration date.

If a student wishes to study in French and their mother tongue is not French, or if they have not studied full time in French for at least three years, the University reserves the right to administer a written proficiency test.

Competency in English and French is compulsory for French and Translation programs. Applicants to these programs must pass a language proficiency test (with a minimum grade of at least 70%) prior to admission.

Pour être exempté d'un test de langue, vous devez avoir obtenu un diplôme après un minimum de trois ans d'études à temps complet dans une institution secondaire ou postsecondaire où la langue d'enseignement est uniquement le français ou l'anglais et dans un pays où le français ou l'anglais est l'une des langues officielles du pays.

Dans le cas contraire, si vous demandez le français comme langue d'enseignement, l'Université se réserve le droit d'administrer un test de langue. Si vous demandez l'anglais comme langue d'enseignement, vous devez prouver votre compétence linguistique en nous fournissant le résultat officiel que vous avez obtenu à l'un des tests de langues secondes reconnus.

Les programmes de traduction requièrent des compétences linguistiques dans les deux langues. Les candidats doivent passer un test de langue (avec une moyenne de plus de 70 p. cent) avant l'admission à ces programmes.

Université Saint-Paul/Saint Paul University

www.ustpaul.ca

Le test de compétence linguistique n'est pas obligatoire. Un cours de 12^e année U français ou English est requis.

Exigences linguistiques

Collège militaire royal du Canada

Les cours se donnent en français et en anglais. Les candidats bilingues peuvent choisir de suivre leurs cours en français ou en anglais. Puisque les candidats doivent être citoyens canadiens pour être admissibles au CMR, il n'y a pas d'examen de compétence linguistique précédant l'admission. Il est entendu que tous les candidats doivent répondre aux exigences d'admission du programme auquel ils font demande incluant un cours de français 12^e année U. Les cours de langue sont obligatoires pour tous les candidats qui n'ont pas encore un niveau de compétence élevé dans les deux langues officielles. Quand un étudiant a atteint le niveau qualifié, il doit subir un test de certification de la langue seconde. Tout étudiant doit réussir ce test de compétence linguistique avant de recevoir le diplôme.

Université Laurentienne

Un cours de français 12^e année U est exigé pour l'admission aux programmes offerts entièrement ou partiellement en français. Les personnes qui choisissent un programme offert uniquement en anglais peuvent suivre des cours facultatifs en français. Toutes les candidates et tous les candidats de l'école secondaire qui ont étudié au Canada pendant moins de quatre ans devront faire preuve de leurs compétences linguistiques en français ou en anglais.

Collège universitaire de Hearst

Le cours de français 12^e année U est exigé pour l'admission au Collège universitaire de Hearst. Pour obtenir leur diplôme, les étudiantes et les étudiants doivent réussir les cours FRAN 1806F Introduction à la langue française I et FRAN 1807F Introduction à la langue française II.

Université d'Ottawa

L'Université d'Ottawa offre ses cours en français et en anglais. Les candidats qui maîtrisent les deux langues officielles pourront s'inscrire dans la langue de leur choix. L'Université se réserve le droit de demander une preuve de compétence linguistique à tout candidat dont la langue maternelle n'est ni le français ni l'anglais. Tous les candidats doivent se conformer aux exigences d'admission du programme, notamment en ce qui a trait aux cours de français ou d'English 4U.

Université Saint-Paul

L'Université Saint-Paul offre des programmes en langues française et anglaise. Les candidats doivent maîtriser la langue d'enseignement du programme auquel ils s'inscrivent. L'Université se réserve le droit de faire passer un test de compétence linguistique lorsque l'analyse du dossier d'admission ne permet pas de déterminer une connaissance suffisante du français ou de l'anglais.

York University – Campus Glendon

Glendon est une faculté bilingue, c'est-à-dire que les cours sont offerts en français et en anglais. Lors de la demande d'admission, tou(te)s les candidat(e)s du niveau secondaire qui ont étudié au Canada (ou dans un pays où le français ou l'anglais est la langue officielle) pendant moins de quatre ans, devront démontrer leur compétence linguistique en français ou en anglais. Le Service de liaison de Glendon administre le test de classement de langue française pour ceux qui désirent démontrer leur compétence dans cette langue. English 12^e année U (français 12^e année U – FRA4U, FIF4U ou FEF4U – dans les écoles secondaires de langue française) est obligatoire, alors qu'un cours de 12^e année dans la langue seconde est recommandé.
